Biographical Note:

The Mobile chapter of the American Association of University Women organized in 1936 with twenty-six original members. The first president was Mrs. Truman Smith. The Mobile chapter engaged in various civil projects in the city and took an active interest in state and national issues like equal property taxation in Alabama, opposition to the Equal Rights Amendment, politics, women's issues, environmental issues, and a variety of other topics.

The chapter also sponsored cultural events such as Christmas ballets, literary reviews, and programs for area elementary schools. In 1966, Mobile served as the host city for the Southeast Regional Conference. Several members of the local chapter have served on state and regional AAUW boards and committees. In addition, members of AAUW serve on several local historic preservation boards.
